

Open your hands

In the vision i saw me with a gold bag of white stones and on the stones was written AMI

Then i heard the voice of the LORD say.

“Scatter these white stones casting them into the sea”

So i did as i was commanded.

I cast the stones into the sea.

Then i heard the voice of the LORD say.

“Open your hands like a book”

So i opened my hands like a book and in my hands was stones crystal clear in appearance like transparent glass.

Then the voice of the LORD said.

“see i have placed the aints of the kingdom of God into your hands, now take a piece of your sackclothe garment and wrap them in the sackclothe and bind them with the rope and cast these stones into the sea where the white stones are scattered”

So i did what i was commanded and i cast the stones bound in sacklothe into the sea
