

Locust wings

The locusts prophesy in the last days is drescribed in the following prophesy.

Rev 9:7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

Horses were amoured with metal. This armor is called the Barding.

Barding (also spelled bard or barb) is body armour for war horses. The practice of armoring horses was first extensively developed in antiquity in the eastern kingdoms of Parthia and Pahlava. After the conquests of Alexander the Great it likely made its way into European military practices via the Seleucid Empire and later Byzantine Empire.

Helicoptors are covered in metal armor.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

They have teeth like lions teeth.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

Their breastplates are like Iron and the sounds of thier wings are like chariot wheels metal turning and thundering of horses hoofs on the ground.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

Their tails bend upward like scorpions tails.

These are the locusts that John saw coming in from the east.

The swarm of locusts is the swarm of helicopters from the kings of the east coming across the euphrates.

Rev 9:7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

They had crowns on their heads because they are the kings of the east.

Rev 16:12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

This is what is mentioned in the locust prophesy.

The locusts are the helicopters coming in to clear the way for the armies coming after them.

Rev 9:13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

These are the Helicopters of the armies of the kings of the east that look like locust swarms.
