

The stone and bread prophesy of the end times.

The devil at the wilderness tempted Christ. This is foreshadow of retribution in the end times.

Luke 4:1 And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

The devil specifically tempted Christ with making the stone turn into bread when he was hungry.

This temptation is thrown back in Satans face in the end times as retribution for mocking...

When the people of God are lead by the Spirit into the wilderness on the next exodus.

Rev 12:6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

The devil gets angry at the woman in the wilderness.

Rev 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

The devil sees the Woman being fed in the wilderness with a stone that leads the woman to bread he begins to get angry and make war.

Rev 12:17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

What stone and bread does the devil get put in his face?

Rev 2:17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.
